What is Kaal Sarp Dosh?

Kaal Sarp Dosh occurs when all seven planets are positioned between Rahu and Ketu in a person's birth chart (kundali). Depending on their placement, the dosh can be full or partial. In some cases, people have Partial Kaal Sarp Dosh, also known as Ardh Kaal Sarp Dosh. While typically considered malefic, some astrologers also mention positive effects of partial Kaal Sarp Dosh depending on planetary aspects and positions.

Positive Effects of Ardh Kaal Sarp Dosh:

Although most associate Kaal Sarp Dosh with struggles, Ardh Kaal Sarp Dosh or Partial Kaal Sarp Dosh may have some positive effects under specific astrological combinations. For example:

- It may push an individual toward spiritual growth and self-realization.
- It can create a disciplined, responsible personality.
- It often leads people to seek out divine purpose and deeper meaning in life.

However, even when positive effects exist, the dosh can still create delays or hardships that require remedies through proper Vedic rituals.
